

RIGHTLY DIVIDING

FINAL

Read these directions carefully. Follow them exactly. On your own notebook paper (and not this final exam) answer the following questions. Put your name in the upper right-hand corner of each page. Read each question carefully. Think about the question. Think about your answer. Organize your thoughts. Then and only then Write legibly. Pace yourself, each question should be allotted about (15) minutes to answer. This is an open book and open note test. That means you may use your Bible and your own notes (but not the notes and Bibles of others). Each question requires at least five (5) separate Bible passages. (For example, Gen 1:1-2; Matt 1:1, Acts 2:1-3; Rom 12:1,2; Rev 1:4; NOT John 1:1-5) There are 100 points possible for this exam. Each question is worth 33 points. I have enjoyed this class immensely (in the most literal and strictest sense of that word, look up “immense” in the dictionary to see what it really means), thank you for making this an immense class and I hope you have enjoyed this class as much as I have. So without further adieu, here is your exam.....ENJOY! God bless and God speed. And for God’s sake use Rightly Dividing to answer the questions. Please I’m begging you, use what you’ve learned in THIS class to answer. If you’ve ever cared for your teacher, please use Rightly Dividing to complete this exam. In order to get one free point on the exam circle the word adieu above.
